

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

Mountain West Women's Basketball Championship – Quarterfinals

Postgame Notes | March 10

#4 San Diego State 63, #5 New Mexico 53

Championship Notes

- The No. 4 seed has qualified for the MW tournament semifinals for the first time since 2021.

San Diego State Notes

- San Diego State has earned a spot in the semifinals for the third consecutive year and for the ninth time overall. The Aztecs will face top-seeded UNLV on Tuesday, March 11 at 5 p.m. PT in a rematch of the 2024 MW Women's Basketball Championship contest.
- SDSU is now 22-23 all-time in MW tournament games.
- The Aztecs have now defeated New Mexico in three straight MW tournaments, winning in the No. 4 vs. No. 5 matchup in 2023 and in the No. 7 vs. No. 2 contest in 2024.
- The SDSU defense limited the Lobos to just five points in the third quarter, which is tied for the fewest points the Aztecs have allowed in a single quarter during a MW tournament all-time.
- Senior Cali Clark tallied 12 points and nine rebounds in 17 minutes off the bench. Clark is just the fourth Aztec all-time to record at least 10 points and five rebounds off the bench in a MW tournament game.

New Mexico Notes

- New Mexico drops to 30-21 all-time in MW tournament history.
- Dating back to the 2022 MW Women's Basketball Championship semifinals, the Lobos have dropped four straight tournament games.
